

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Corporate control of the media has already gotten to the point where there is hardly any way left to inform oneself through a truly free media. Larger media companies will only result in more corporate censorship of news which does not favor the interests of those who own the media. I do not want to see the last small remnants of a free press disappear.